

Welcome to Balancing Your Life with vibrational medicine.
Together we can change the world one vibe at a time.

In this Series we will:

- ✓ Review energy medicine therapies
- ✓ Explore the seven chakras
- ✓ Identify your personal imbalances within your energy field
- ✓ Review ways to balance your life/ personal imbalances
- ✓ Use Custom Homeopathic Remedies
- ✓ Monthly Personal Intuitive Coaching

At the core of all matter lies energy, and the human body is no different. The energy body is a template for the physical body, and is the key to health, vitality and well-being. Throughout our lives, emotional energy resonates with life experiences, personal and professional relationships, and belief systems. It literally encodes itself within the cell tissues of our body. Hence, it is possible to "nudge" an incoherent field into normalcy through energy therapies.

The vast and endless amount of information and memories contained within us is amazing! Would you say your past is working for or against you? Take a moment to reflect on your health, your finances, and your relationships. Now how about your dreams and desires? Are they taking flight or do you feel as though you are stifled and spinning in circles?!

The butterfly effect states, a butterfly flapping its wings in South America can affect the weather in Central Park. Therefore, it is reasonable to believe that a memory (good, bad or indifferent) that vibrates within us, can affect us mentally, emotionally, physically and spiritually throughout our lifetime, Just like the ripple effect of the butterfly's wind.

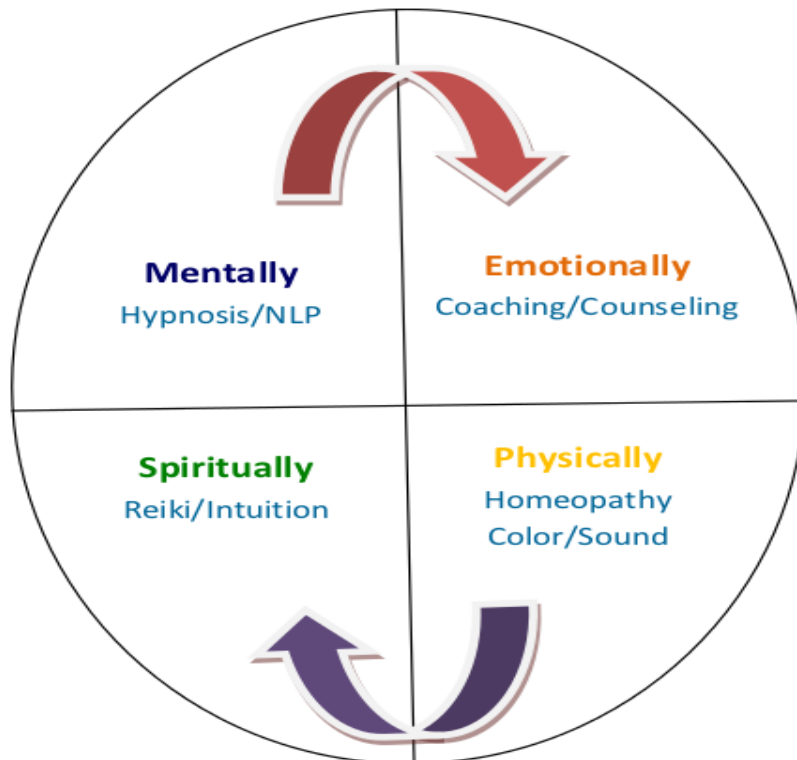

The Dragonfly Effect

A Spiritual Makeover: Ignite Your Flight ... with Vibrational Medicine

“The Dragonfly” is a scientific phenomenon, did you know that as long as its four wings are balanced and working in perfect harmony, it's able to move in any direction it chooses? At least 6, which according to science is impossible!

“The Dragonfly Effect” is a Chakra Balancing Series founded by Dr. Martha Reed. The program encourages us to shift on all levels, Mentally, Emotionally, Physically and Spiritually. Ultimately shifting our essence into perfect balance, or recalibrating our wings, so to speak!

There is so much included in this program!

True-life balance comes from the inner glow of happiness. Brightening up from the inside out allows you to shine your powerful, clear self out into the world like the beacon of light you were born to be.

I once read, a Spiritual Makeover is like visiting a Beauty parlor, except in a Spiritual Makeover, all the scrubbing, shaping and cleaning happens on the inside, in your heart and mind a complete inner transformation so to speak.

Are you ready to fly in the direction you choose, are you ready to stop spinning in circles going nowhere? Release the stubborn stuff that somehow keeps you stuck.

Private Intensive, Group Workshop or Online Home Study program!
You choose ... which option best suits your needs?
